DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 10-25 are objected to because of the following informalities:

Claims 10-25 should be renumbered as 12-28, respectively, their dependency should be changed accordingly.

Appropriate correction is required.

Double Patenting

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claims 2, 6 and 12 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 7, 9 of U. S. Patent No. 6,636,556 since the claims, if allowed, would improperly extend the "right to exclude" already granted in the patent.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the patent and is covered by the patent since the patent and the application are claiming common subject matter, as follows: despite slight variation in the claimed languages, claims 2, 6 and 12 of the present application claim essentially the same claimed subject matter as that in claims 7 and 9 of U.S. Patent 6,636,556.

Art Unit: 2634

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant was prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application during prosecution of the application which matured into a patent. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

5. Claims 2, 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Song et al. (US 6,526,037) (hereafter Song).

Regarding claims 6, Song discloses the claimed subject matter in claim 6 including “forming a plurality of spread spectrum codes each having an ideal auto-correlation function; and extending the plurality of spread spectrum codes to form a plurality of extended spread spectrum codes, wherein non-periodic cross-correlation functions among the extended spread spectrum codes each have a zero-correlation window" in Fig. 2; col. 3, line 65 to col.6, line 43.

Art Unit: 2634

Regarding claim 2, see claim 6 above.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Song.

Regarding claims 12, Song discloses the claimed subject matter in claim 12 including "a code generator operable to generate a first code that has an ideal periodic auto-correlation function; a first extended code generator operable to generate a first extended code by appending a plurality of elements to the first code, wherein the first extended code has an ideal periodic auto-correlation function, and wherein a non-periodic auto-correlation function of the first extended code has a zero-correlation window" in Fig. 2; col. 3, line 65 to col.6, line 43. Further, the claimed subject matter "a first spreader operable to spread a first stream of data with the first extended code" would have been obvious to one skilled in the art since that is the purpose of the utilization of the spreading codes.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 1, 20-28 are allowed (after being renumbered).
9. Claims 3-5, 7-11, 13-19 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
